Profile

I am a queer artist & photographer with an Indianapolis studio since 2016. I'm currently focusing on headshots, performing arts and my own activism projects, having also dabbled in portraits, nature and street photography. I also enjoy exploring conceptual and artistic nude photography as a form of art therapy, exploring my experiences growing up as a gay man in corporate America. My activism work centers on LGBTQ+, mental health, addiction & recovery, HIV & sexual health communities.
